Ambassador Program

(Effective 8/25/2026)

The purpose of this program is to strengthen the PVA-WI community by creating meaningful opportunities for individuals who believe in, support, and advocate for the mission of PVA-WI to remain connected and engaged, even when they do not qualify for formal Life or Associate Membership. Through this program, PVA-WI seeks to broaden its community of support, increase awareness of its mission, and bring together individuals who are committed to advancing the quality of life, independence, and well-being of those living with spinal cord injury, disease/dysfunction, multiple sclerosis and amyotrophic lateral sclerosis.

Eligible persons may include (but are not limited to):

- Friends and family members of current members
- Donors and community supporters
- Volunteers
- Business and community leaders
- Disability advocates
- Veteran advocates
- Veterans who do not meet Life/Associate Membership eligibility requirements
- Other individuals committed to advancing the mission of PVA-WI

What you will receive:

- Chapter newsletters and communications (electronically)
- Updates on Chapter accomplishments and advocacy initiatives
- An invitation to participate in public Chapter events and community outreach activities
- An invitation, when appropriate and space permits, to the Annual Membership Banquet
- Invitations to support Chapter fundraising initiatives
- Notifications of volunteer opportunities
- An invitation to be spectators at select Chapter sporting events
